The Artists' Exchange is pleased to welcome audiences to The Black Box Theatre for a psychedelically satirical theatre experience. A modern adaptation of Aristophanes' "The Clouds," a classic Greek comedy, will take the stage on from September 11-13 and 18-20, 2008 with a flower-powered storm of philosophical probing.

Check out this Press Release for more information:

The Artists' Exchange will also be presenting the first annual Fall Out of Summer (FOOS) Festival on Sunday, September 14, 2008 from 12:00 pm to 10:00 pm. The event will feature live music, theatre, art activities and contests, food and artisan vendors, a summer camp art show, and a film screening at dusk.

The goal of the event is two-fold: to take a long-awaited step toward revitalizing the Rolfe Square community and to raise much needed funds to help The Artists' Exchange continue to offer a lively and enriching calendar of events and classes to the public.

The Artists' Exchange is a non-profit arts collaborative, whose mission is to create an atmosphere in which creativity, learning, and discovery converge, individuality is celebrated and to integrate artists of all levels. Classes/workshops are offered for children and adults in visual and performing arts. The Artist Exchange houses The Art Company, The Black Box Theatre, Art Boutique Café and Gallery, Windmill Studios, Simple Things Fiber Arts, Tom Chace Music and 3 Art Galleries. Artists teach their crafts (proposals are accepted), display artwork in the galleries, or perform in the theatre. Budding artists may further develop or learn new skills in available classes and workshops. The Artists Exchange is owned and operated by Gateways to Change, Inc.
